

SHARE

Published on 28 April 2020

Related topics

COVID19 • GOVERNMENT

The history of emergency legislation and the COVID-19 crisis

Why has the UK government not declared a state of emergency in the current pandemic?
The history of emergency powers highlights the difficulties of defining an 'emergency' and the challenges any government would face if one were declared

